POLITICAL FEVER IN BRITAIN IS REPORTED NOW AT ITS HEIGHT

Everybody In the Country Is Speculating, But Future Will Remain Obscure Until After Meeting of Unionists To-morrow.

London, Oct. 18.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The British political fever has now reached its height and there is every indication that the maximum temperature will be maintained for some days. Everybody is guessing as to when the crisis will pass and what turn it will take, but the answer is as yet unrevealed and the future remains obscure pending to-morrow's Unionist meeting at the Carlton Club, which is expected to give the key to the problem.

Resignation Hint.

Only the anti-coalition newspaper, The Daily Mail, to-day attributes to Premier Lloyd George the definite statement that he will resign office if the Unionist meeting declares against Austen Chamberlain, whose outspoken support of the Premier has aroused strong opposition in the party ranks.

CORDIAL SUPPORT FOR LLOYD GEORGE

Mr. Lloyd George's statement is said to have been made at a private meeting last night of the Liberal Ministers and Under-Secretaries. None of the papers nearest the Premier nor any other confirms this or professes to know exactly what passed at the meeting, although all agree that Mr. Lloyd George received cordial support.

To Form Cabinet

Whether or not the Premier made the declaration attributed to him, some of the best informed political correspondents believe he will resign if Mr. Chamberlain is voted down at the Carlton Club. It would then be for the King, in accordance with political precedents in this country, to invite the Conservative Party to try its hand at forming a Cabinet. If, on the contrary, the meeting gives Mr. Chamberlain anything approaching strong support, the Premier, it is reiterated, will advise the King to dissolve Parliament, and this being done, will appeal to the country on a Coalition ticket. Thus, if these prophecies be correct, the dissolution of Parliament seems near in either case, and it is not supposed the Conservatives would carry on without the prominent and tried leaders who would quit the Government with Chamberlain if he should resign.

EFFORT TO POSTPONE ELECTION TO JANUARY

Among the other reports published by the morning papers is one to the effect that the Ministers started new efforts yesterday to insure postponement of the general election until January, completed, it is said, by fear of a complete split in the Conservative Party.

LABOR'S ACTIVITIES BRIEFLY REPORTED

To a foreigner suddenly taking his initial survey of the situation perhaps one of the strangest features of the British crisis would be the comparative absence from the columns of the leading newspapers of reports of the activities of the Labor Party, notwithstanding the fact that the intention of that party to put more than 400 candidates into the field.

Quiet Campaign

Labor certainly is mentioned, but the space given the Labor movement is trifling compared with that devoted to the doings of the older parties. There is no reason to suppose, however, that this reflects the amount of importance attached to the industrial attack in various constituencies. The fact is that the Labor leaders thus far have been less vocal than their rivals, but they are known to be conducting an energetic campaign.

DECLARATION BY ARTHUR HENDERSON

Some of the political principles for which Labor is fighting are already well known. They were put clearly by the moderate Labor leader, Mr. Arthur Henderson, in a speech yesterday at Newport, Monmouthshire, where there is a by-election to-day in which Labor has the opportunity of showing its strength. The seat in this constituency hitherto has been held by a Coalition Liberal, but the Coalition is not sharing in the contest, and the fight is between the Labor and Conservative and Liberal candidates.

Financial Reform

In his address Mr. Henderson said Labor sought for national financial reform on the basis of the ability of the people to pay and would lighten the national debt by a war redemption fund through a levy on accumulated wealth, beginning with all fortunes over £5,000.

MORE COLLECTIVE RESPONSIBILITY

Labor also had declared war against private industrial enterprise, and advocated greater extension of collective responsibility. This especially applied to such national services as the mines and railroads.

The workers must have a measure of control over industry, and there must be an elevation in their status, full employment or maintenance and

NEW MINISTER OF RAILWAYS FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA

HON. J. D. MACLEAN

KEMAL WILL NOT TALK WITH NANSSEN

No Discussion of Christian Minorities in Turkey
Nansen Also Wished to Discuss Refugees' Needs

Angora, Oct. 18.—The Nationalist Government agency announces that Mustapha Kemal, owing to numerous other engagements, will be unable to meet Dr. Fridtjof Nansen.

Dr. Nansen, who represents the International Red Cross and the League of Nations in the relief work, was recently refused permission by the Nationalists to visit Anatolia, whither he planned to go for a conference with Mustapha Kemal in behalf of the League of Nations regarding the safety of the Christian minorities and the care of refugees.

247 PASSENGERS TAKEN FROM SHIP

No Loss of Life in Accident Off Florida

Schooner Aground Off Massachusetts; Crew Rescued

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 18.—All the 247 passengers have been safely transferred from the Clyde steamship Seneca, which was wrecked off Cape Cod, and efforts to float the vessel, which went aground yesterday, are continuing, according to the United States wireless station at Anastasia Island. Two large lighters have arrived to assist in the operation, and a large tug has been requisitioned.

The Seneca, pride of the Clyde fleet, went aground during a fog early yesterday several miles north of the mouth of the St. John's River. She was bound to Jacksonville.

New Bedford, Mass., Oct. 18.—The three-masted schooner Seamano, bound from Jersey to Parramatta, N.S., with hard coal, grounded on Bow and Bays Reef early to-day. She was expected to be a total loss. Captain Morrissey and his crew of seven were rescued.

BACHELOR TAX IN MONTREAL IS TO BE ENDED

Montreal, Oct. 18.—By a majority of 23 to 8, the City Council resolved yesterday to insert in the Montreal Bill for the forthcoming session of the Legislature a clause to repeal the bachelor tax. This levy brought in $100,000 in revenue at a time when the money was greatly needed. It was attacked in the courts as being discriminatory and vexatious, but it was upheld.

MR. CHURCHILL SUFFERING WITH APPENDICITIS

London, Oct. 18.—Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Colonial Secretary, who was taken ill Monday, has developed appendicitis, it was announced this morning. It was said to be too early for the doctors to decide definitely as to the necessity of an operation.

CONFERENCE TO BE POSTPONED

British and Italian Politics Affect Near East
Consideration of American Participation Suggested

London, Oct. 18.—Allied close to the ministerial crisis here and that impending in Italy is the question of the general Near Eastern Peace Conference, which it is feared must be postponed until the situations in London and Rome are settled.

Remarking upon this contingency, the diplomatic expert of The Daily Telegraph writes: "The disadvantages of postponement might, however, be compensated in some measure if a postponement which will carry the conference well beyond the coming American elections should enable the Washington administration to ascertain the real strength of public feeling in the United States concerning American participation, at least within certain limits, in the proposed Near Eastern settlement."

FISHING SCHOONERS ARE PREPARED FOR THEIR RACES

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 18.—The Canadian schooner Bluebonnet, here to defend her honors as champion of the North Atlantic fishing fleets, went on the Gloucester Race, for a final overhauling preparatory to the final race of the championship series on Saturday.

Indian Moslems of Khalifate Committee Act

To Give Aeroplanes to Angora Government

London, Oct. 18.—A Reuter dispatch from Delhi says that prominent Moslem leaders who constitute the Central Khalifate Committee met and reviewed the Near Eastern situation since the armistice, and after considerable discussion passed a resolution to present Mustapha Kemal with a sword and to present the Angora Government with two aeroplanes, in appreciation of the Turkish victory. The Committee has assured the Kemalists of Indian Moslem sympathy and readiness to help in the struggle for freedom.

PREMIER RESIGNS RAILWAY MINISTRY; MACLEAN SUCCEEDS

Oliver Seeks More Time for General Supervision of Provincial Policies
New Minister Favorable to P. G. E. Completion; No Staff Changes Yet

Premier Oliver to-day announced resignation of the portfolio of Minister of Railways. At the same time it was announced that the Hon. J. D. MacLean, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education, was sworn in as minister in charge of the railway ministry as well as retaining his other portfolios.

Premier Oliver has held the Ministry of Railways since he first became a Cabinet Minister in 1918 under the late Premier Brewster. He was chosen at that time because of the fight he put up on the McBride railway policies of the Conservative Government.

The change in the ministry was effected quietly last night in the apartments of the Hon. J. A. Macdonald, Chief Justice, who is presiding over the Court of Appeal sittings in Vancouver. The Chief Justice is Administrator for the Province during the absence in Europe of Lieutenant-Governor Nichol.

"I have tendered and His Honor the Administrator has accepted my resignation as Minister of Railways," Premier Oliver said to-day in his announcement of the change. "I have recommended the Hon. J. D. MacLean as my successor, and he has been sworn in."

His reasons for resigning the position are that he has much more work than he could do and was getting out of touch with much important Government work. I intend to devote more time to visiting different parts of the Province and to studying Provincial requirements.

"I think the Hon. Dr. MacLean has the ability and the necessary administrative and financial experience to carry out the duties of the Ministry of Railways, which, though not strictly a departmental matter, is undoubtedly the greatest problem at the present time."

Dr. MacLean will continue for the present as Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education and within the limits of policy decided upon by the Legislature will have a free hand in administering the Department of Railways.

SOVIET IS MAKING DEMAND ON CHINA

Insists Attacks from Chinese Soil End

Says Manchurians Plot Against Siberia

Peking, Oct. 18.—The Soviet Government at Moscow, through its envoy here, Adolph Joffe, to-day presented a flat demand on the Peking Foreign Office that China desist from permitting armed "White" forces to concentrate in Chinese territory for attacks on Siberia.

The Soviet Government freely charges that the authorities of North Manchuria are assisting the "Whites" to deal a blow at the Russian people, and enumerates in support of the charge a long series of attacks made against Siberian territory from China during the past three years.

NO PARADE TO-DAY IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Turkish Gendarmes Not Permitted by British to March
Ships Carrying Nationalist Police to Be Stopped

Constantinople, Oct. 18.—The Allied Missions reached an unanimous decision to-day forbidding the Kemalists gendarmes destined for Thrace to enter Constantinople. The British navy has been ordered to stop all vessels bearing Turkish Nationalist police.

Constantinople, Oct. 18.—The British authorities have declined to permit the Turkish Nationalist gendarmes to march through Constantinople to-day as the Kemalists had planned. The order produced keen disappointment among the exuberant Turkish population, which had made preparations on a vast scale to welcome the Kemalists.

Constantinople dispatches Tuesday night indicated eager anticipation amongst the Nationalists there of the proposed entry of the Kemalists gendarmes into Constantinople to-day.

28,000 REFUGEES NOW AT RODOSTO

Greeks Evacuating Thrace Have Gathered There

Rodosto, Thrace, Oct. 18.—This town has become a jumping-off place in the Greek evacuation of Eastern Thrace. Over 28,000 panic-stricken refugees are here, all dominated by the same fear of the Turk that swayed the refugee crowds in Smyrna three weeks ago.

Everybody believes the Turks are almost at the door, and nothing can reassure them. The general belief is that the Kemalists will arrive simultaneously with the British troops of occupation and every refugee hopes to get out before that event.

The whole town and all its extra population have abandoned any pretence of performing normal duties and have gathered along the gravel beaches waiting nervously for ships which do not come.

ESQUIMALT GAINS LOWER INSURANCE

Fire Rates to Be Reduced in Protected Area

Promise of Extension With Increased Public Services

A reduction in fire insurance rates for dwellings and other long term risks in the protected area of Esquimalt municipality has been granted by the British Columbia Fire Underwriters' Association, according to an announcement issued from the local office to-day. This intimation follows announcements of reductions both in the city, Oak Bay, and the protected port of Saanich.

The protected port of Esquimalt referred to in the announcement is that part of the township adjacent to Victoria, West, south to Lyall Street, and also on roads west of Agnes and Fairview Streets, where hydrants are installed, and on the Esquimalt Road, and immediately adjacent thereto.

The Association's Policy. District Manager Douglas A. S. McGregor makes the following statement on the subject:

"The new rates will give a reduction of five cents on the annual basic rate for all risks in the classification, and as these are practically all written for a three year term at double the annual rate, the reduction in rate is equivalent to ten cents per cent."

"As the area covered includes the more built-up section, the reduced rates will be of considerable benefit to residents in the municipal district. The fire protection in this district is of a very elementary nature, and this is a subject that might well receive careful consideration with a view of making improvements, which would not necessarily be very costly, for which further recognition in fire insurance rates would be given."

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS INVOLVE MAYOR AND THREE ALDERMEN

Dramatic Turn to Disclosure Regarding Staneland Expenses to Police Convention; Finance Committee Chairman Denies All Responsibility.

Dramatic development was given to-day to the Andros disclosure about the payment of a sum for expenses to Commissioner Staneland, made on Monday evening at the City Council session.

An information was laid this morning by George Morphy, secretary of the newly formed Taxpayers' Protective Association, against Mayor Marchant and Aldermen Eugene S. Woodward, David Leeming and Richard W. Perry, alleging that they committed an indictable offence by disobeying the statutes, and issuing a cheque for one hundred dollars to Police Commissioner Walter E. Staneland under a voucher reading: "Expenses Toronto to New York."

Frank Higgins, K.C., solicitor for the association, points out that under sub-section "c" of section 25 of the Municipal Act, 1914, no amount in excess of fifty dollars can be paid out without the sanction of the City Council. Under section 164 of the Criminal Code the penalty for disobeying a statute is one year's imprisonment.

The information is returnable on Saturday, October 21.

History of Case. On August 21 the City Council, by resolution, refused to pay Police Commissioner Staneland any part of his expenses to attend the convention of police officials in New York.

On September 6 a cheque was issued by the Corporation for $100 payable to W. E. Staneland, countersigned by the Mayor. The cheque was deposited to "Mr. Staneland's credit in the City of Victoria Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada on September 8, it is stated to-day.

At this time the Finance Committee apparently had not dealt with this matter in any way whatsoever. At least it was not until September 21 that the Finance Committee passed the voucher on which the cheque was issued, the matter apparently having been taken up by the committee on the 18th. In other words, three weeks after the cheque was deposited in the bank the records show that the voucher was passed by the committee.

Alderman Andros brought this matter to the attention of the Council Monday. Mr. Higgins says that it was as a result of the disclosure of the Finance Committee's action that the Protective Association was formed and its ultimatum that the association intends going further and will ask for the appointment of a Royal Commission "to find out if there are any other subterranean outflowings of the city's cash for such purposes as this, and whether our taxes are increased. The Taxpayers' Protective Association has offices at 620 Broughton Street.

Like a Bombshell. News of the laying of the information against the Chief Magistrate of the city and the members of the Finance Committee fell like a bombshell on those who happened to learn of it at noon to-day. The keenest excitement has been caused over the developments and the public will await with interest the turn of events.

The information against Mayor Marchant and the members of the Finance Committee, between the 6th and 25th days of September, 1922, both days inclusive, "did without lawful excuse, disobey a Statute of the Legislature of British Columbia, to wit: Subsection (c) of Section 25 of Chapter 82 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1914, before the Municipal Act, by wilfully omitting to first obtain the approval or sanction of the Council of said Corporation to the expenditure of certain moneys, to wit: the payment of one hundred dollars to one Walter E. Staneland, contrary to the Criminal Code and for which offence no penalty of other mode of punishment is expressly provided by law."

The subsection (c) of the Statutes referred to authorizes the Mayor: "(c) To appoint such members of the Council as he may deem proper to be standing committees for any purposes which he considers would be better regulated and controlled by means of such committees; but the proceedings of all such committees shall be subject to the approval of the Council, and no duty may be contracted or money expended by the authority of, or at the discretion of, any such committee in excess of fifty dollars at a time, unless first sanctioned by the Council in manner provided by Statute or by-law or resolution of the Council."

Penalty Severe. Section 164 of the Criminal Code provides: "164. Disobeying a Statute—Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to one year's imprisonment who, without lawful excuse, disobeys any Act of Parliament of Canada or of a Legislature of a Province, by wilfully doing any act which it forbids or omitting to do any act which it requires to be done, unless some penalty or other mode of punishment is expressly provided by law."

MINISTER'S REGRETS

BULGARIA ADMITS ARMENIAN REFUGEES

Constantinople, Oct. 18.—The Bulgarian Legation announced yesterday that the Bulgarian Government had opened its frontiers to all Armenian refugees from Eastern Thrace and the consulate here was authorized to issue a maximum of 70,000 Armenian passports from Constantinople.

"This generous action of Bulgaria will be greatly appreciated by the friends of Armenia throughout the world," said the Armenian Patriarch Zaven. "Bulgaria is the first country to show real, generous open-hearted hospitality in such a wholesale manner."

Calgary Citizen Gains Twenty-One Pounds

Alex Hayman, a World War Veteran and well-known resident of 627 Fifth Avenue West, Calgary, Alberta, is still another who has found Tanlac a safe and sure road back to health, strength and working efficiency.

"I am not only feeling better than I have in years," says Mr. Hayman, "but I have actually gained twenty-one pounds and you may know by that what I think of Tanlac. My stomach and kidneys had been badly out of order for nearly four years and my appetite had deserted me entirely. Everything I would eat caused indigestion, and as a result I lost twenty-five pounds in weight. I lost energy and strength until I just felt that each day would be the last I could stay on the job. At times my back was so lame and stiff that I could hardly raise myself up out of bed. The power of endurance had left me, and I just seemed to be 'dead on my feet,' so to speak. "But it only took Tanlac a few weeks to set me right, and I am now feeling fine. I thoroughly enjoy my three square meals a day, for I have a wonderful appetite and everything agrees with me perfectly. To be in such good health after feeling miserable so long is certainly something to be thankful for, and I cannot praise Tanlac too highly."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. (Adv.)

RAILWAY FARES IN BRITAIN CUT

To Be Fifty Per Cent. Above Pre-war Level

Companies Hope for Increase in Traffic

London, Oct. 18.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The eagerly awaited announcement of the lowering of railway fares, which were raised seventy-five per cent. during the war, was made last night. The railway companies of Great Britain have agreed to bring this increase down to fifty per cent. Rates for perishable goods hauled on passenger trains are made subject to the same reduction. Henceforth the practice of some companies in charging less than double fare for the return journey will be generally terminated. Third-class fare under the new decision will work out at half-pence a mile. Tourist and excursion fares are to be reduced proportionately to ordinary fares, but season tickets will not be affected, as they are now only fifty per cent. above the pre-war rate. Workmen's fares are also unchanged.

Costs Still High. The companies point out that although fares will be fifty per cent. above pre-war levels, working costs, especially wages, are still in a far higher ratio. Therefore, the hope is expressed that the negotiations with the railway trade unions will result in a further reduction of wages. It is hoped also by the railways that an increase of traffic will at least make up the estimated loss of revenue, approaching £19,000,000 annually, which is involved in the present change. The reductions will come into effect at the end of the year.

DRUG SMUGGLER IN HONGKONG HEAVILY SENTENCED

Hongkong, Oct. 18.—The Korean smuggler who was arrested last Thursday on board a Japanese steamship from London on a charge of importing more than $100,000 worth of narcotics, pleaded guilty yesterday and was fined $25,000, with the alternative of one year's imprisonment. In addition he was sentenced to six months in jail at hard labor.

ESCAPED PRISONERS WERE RECAPTURED

Two Murderers and Robber Back in Los Angeles Jail

Los Angeles, Oct. 18.—The three jail-breakers, Herbert Wilson, mail bandit and convicted murderer, Adam Blaszyk, convicted murderer, and Guido Spignola, convicted robber, were recaptured here today after twenty-four hours of liberty. They were taken without a struggle in the home of an ex-convict. The fugitives were found in a house not far from where the automobile which they had stolen was abandoned. Information of their presence there was obtained early today by a deputy sheriff, and Sheriff William Treager and a posse of deputies surrounded the residence and effected the capture with the same suddenness that the trio had surprised the jailers in their liberty break yesterday morning. The capture resulted from the use of plans Wilson had formulated for concealment after the attempted break last April, which was frustrated by sheriff's deputies, and in which Herbert Cox, partner of Wilson, was killed. Wilson was convicted of murder as a result. The three were captured in the place where they had planned to hide last April.

House Surrounded.

Sheriff Treager learned in April that Wilson planned to use the home of Tom Garwood, registered in police records and known as a pal of Wilson, immediately after the escape yesterday morning the sheriff placed the Garwood home under surveillance. The reward came early today when watchers saw three men sink to the ground in front of the house, and a heavy posse rushed there, surrounding the place. The same mysterious sang froid of the former escapee was exhibited since he was known to the authorities as far as Wilson's greeting to the captors. There was no confusion, and Wilson and his fellow fugitives peacefully surrendered when they saw the large number in the cordon around the house. Wilson's first question was concerning the condition of Turnkey Henry Purrier, whom he rendered unconscious in the break yesterday. He smiled and expressed satisfaction when informed Purrier was not seriously hurt.

The most interesting function is the intended gathering arranged by the leaders of the railway trades unions, with whom Sir Henry's relations have been particularly friendly.

MELBOURNE PAPER COMMENDS BRITAIN'S NEAR EAST COURSE

London, Oct. 18.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Commenting on Lloyd George's Manchester speech, The Melbourne Argus, says a Reuter dispatch from that city, expresses the view that the political capital he opponents sought to extract from his handling of the Near East crisis forced the Premier to criticize the past, played by France. "This fact was forced upon him."

There is no doubt, says The Argus, that the firmness shown by Great Britain at the outset checked Kemal's desire for further conquests, that was the province of the British navy, in the Dardanelles and the British army at Chanak and not Franklin-Bouillon's soft words of persuasion that averted a catastrophe.

The bishop favors bringing only Anglo-Saxons to Canada, until all foreign-born settlers now in the Dominion have been Canadianized.

NO KIDNEY OR RHEUMATIC SUFFERER CAN AFFORD TO MISS THIS

says W. G. East, the veterinarian, and Coach for Cambridge University eights for the past thirty years.

It is a universally admitted and easily provable fact that the various organic or other ills and weaknesses are directly due to toxins, germs, acids, or other impurities in the blood. For instance, uric acid causes gout, sciatica, neuritis, etc., whereas stomach acids cause dyspepsia. In fact, most other ailments, ranging from a cold to cancer, look to a toxic blood for their cause. A toxic blood can be purified by the use of a powerful purifier, such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which will reach a dangerously advanced stage physicians combat the poisons in various ways, such as by using serum, or antitoxins, but the better way is to act before these become necessary. Everyone should thoroughly purify the blood occasionally by stimulating the liver, flushing the kidneys, and washing out the intestines with the direct cause is like trying to get rid of smoke without putting out the fire. Prove this for yourself by getting from your chemist a supply of an inexpensive refined compound known by the registered name "Lika Salts" (powder form). Drink a level teaspoonful dissolved in a tumbler of plain water. After repeating this treatment for two or three days see how quickly your pains and ailments disappear as a plainly noticeable improvement in your health, vitality, and disease-resisting power takes place.

DIABETES CONQUERED BY SERUM DISCOVERED BY CANADIAN DOCTORS

New York, Oct. 18.—Experiments in the treatment of diabetes hitherto regarded as practically incurable, have met with remarkable success, according to reports by the officials of the Carnegie Corporation, which has made an appropriation for research work at the Potter Metabolic Laboratory and Clinic in California. The treatment that is being administered has given relief in practically all the cases under observation.

The ravages of the disease have been checked by application of a serum discovered by Canadian physicians working under Dr. J. J. R. Macleod of the University of Toronto. This serum has been used at the Potter laboratory. Thus far relief has been dependent upon constant application of the serum. It is too early, physicians say, to describe the treatment as a "cure" for diabetes, for the experiments at the Potter laboratory have been going on for only about eighteen months. Henry S. Pritchett, President of the Carnegie Corporation, who recently visited the Potter clinic, and observed the experiments there, has made a report on the study and treatment there of diabetes, for incorporation in the annual report of the corporation.

Dr. Potter's metabolic research began at the French Hospital here. He removed to Santa Barbara, Calif., where a metabolic clinic and laboratory was built by public-spirited Californians. The Carnegie Corporation has aided the work by an annual appropriation. Dr. Potter died in 1918 and since the work has been carried on under the direction of W. D. Sansum.

Intensive studies on the internal secretion of the pancreas had been carried on in the meantime under Dr. Macleod in Canada. It has long been known that some pathology of the pancreas is responsible for diabetes. Dr. P. G. Banting, working under Dr. Macleod, carried on intensive experiments to extract a substance from pancreatic tissues. This substance was first injected into dogs suffering with diabetes, symptoms disappeared with the application of the serum, which is known as "insulin." Convincing results of the efficacy of the serum were obtained by Dr. Banting in the cases of humans suffering with the disease.

On account of the admirable facilities in the Potter Metabolic Clinic in Santa Barbara and the opportunity afforded by the close association of laboratory and hospital, Dr. Pritchett's report says, "Dr. Macleod and his associates most generously and kindly communicated to Sansum and his staff in Santa Barbara such full information as they had and because of the urgent need for such an extract of the pancreas, the results of the immediate cooperation with the information thus generously given through Dr. Macleod, the staff of the Potter Metabolic Clinic began strenuous efforts in the isolation of the internal secretion of the pancreas now known as insulin. They were immediately successful and within two months had been able to secure a sufficient amount of insulin to use on nine severe cases of diabetes."

Success of Treatment Established. The results of the treatment are so convincing that there can be no doubt of the great value of this substance in the treatment of diabetes and it is quite within the possibilities that the discovery may result in the relief and cure of great numbers of people from this scourge. The following cases will illustrate the extraordinary results of results which have been obtained:

"A patient of fifty-three years of age was sent to the clinic on the charge of diabetes. He apparently died within two or three days awaiting him. Following the administration of insulin he became immediately better. His weight, which had been decreased to 110 pounds, could be increased to normal and he is rapidly gaining in strength and weight."

"A boy of 12 in extreme illness through diabetes. Through treatment with insulin has remained free although his diet has been increased. The boy is gaining weight at the rate of half a pound a day and is leading the type of life that any normal active child would lead. The older diabetic methods of partial starvation would have been necessary even to prolong life, to say nothing of restoration to health. The results in the other cases have been equally astonishing."

Expense of Serum Is Very Great. "The problem is of course still in its infancy. Insulin is prepared at present at very great expense. Cheaper methods of production must be devised. A study of the intricate chemistry of the product will undoubtedly add materially to our knowledge of the oxidative process going on in the body about which practically nothing is known at present. But the great gains seem to be that patients with the use of this new agent will not only be able to have sugar free, but will be able to have normal diets with the strength and health which can come alone from the use of such food."

"The brilliant success which has come from this study and the still more brilliant prospects of the future which it holds out to the source of the greatest encouragement to the trustees of the corporation that their gift may, if given with discretion, advance the cause of medical knowledge and thereby increase human happiness and usefulness in the most desirable fashion. Mr. Carnegie had always in mind the desire to find the efficient man and enable him to do his work. Not every research can show the brilliant results which have come out of this investigation, but all patients, long continued study adds, little by little, to the sum of knowledge, enriches life, and helps to turn away misfortune."

"Not the least pleasing feature of this investigation lies in the generous and admirable attitude in which two sets of investigators, each of whom has received modest recompense from the Carnegie Corporation, have cooperated toward their common end. It was a graceful and generous act on the part of Dr. Macleod and his colleagues to put at the disposal of the Potter Metabolic Clinic the full results of their important researches but this action is in entire consonance with the spirit and the purpose of true scientific research."

MANS LAUGHTER VERDICT GIVEN IN ALBERTA

Macleod, Alta., Oct. 18.—After deliberating for an hour and twenty minutes, the jury in the Joy manslaughter case brought in a verdict last night of guilty in both instances, with a recommendation for mercy in the case of the woman.

A plea for leniency and mercy was entered in the case of the woman. The judge, who feelingly referred to the condition of the prisoner, ordered her released on suspended sentence, reserving judgment in the case of Nick Joy, her husband.

IRISH PRISONERS SUBJECT OF MESSAGE

New York, Oct. 18.—A cablegram protesting against the alleged mistreatment of Irish republican prisoners in Irish jails was sent yesterday by the American Committee on Irish Republic Soldiers and Prisoners' Dependents' Fund, to William T. Cosgrave, President of the Irish Free State Government. "Evidence of inhuman treatment of republican prisoners has reached America," the message read. "Fifty thousand members of American Association for Recognition of Irish Republic in New York City protest as being doubly barbarous when inflicted by Irishmen on Irishmen."

IN THE BALANCE.

Within the next forty-eight hours, Mr. Lloyd George will know whether he will bring about the dissolution of Parliament and appeal to the country or whether he and his Cabinet will resign and play the defensive against Conservative attack.

At tomorrow's meeting at the Carlton Club—the historic sanctuary of British Toryism—Mr. Austen Chamberlain will appeal to the Conservative adherents of the present Government to renew their support to the Coalition in order that an election may take place on the initiative of Mr. Lloyd George and his colleagues. He is assured of a liberal amount of support from the moderate Conservative element within and without the Cabinet. But only the final vote which he proposes to take at the gathering will indicate the extent of the revolt within the ranks of his own party.

Mr. Lloyd George has faced similar crises. Upon two important occasions within recent memory he has appealed to the House of Commons with definite success. It is true that the present circumstances differ considerably from those which have dictated the necessity for previous votes of confidence. None the less if the people are satisfied that he did the right thing in the Near East, and are not particularly interested in the policy which led up to such delicate and dangerous relations with the Turks, the "die-hards" may still hesitate to cast off the leader who has been their best bet up to this point.

Few people will swallow the suggestion that the British electorate is unduly excited over the present political situation. It is more than likely that it will wonder how anything better than the Coalition is going to be found at this juncture.

GOOD BUSINESS.

During the comparatively short period in which the ferries have been operating between Sidney and Anacortes more than four thousand automobiles and fifteen thousand passengers have been carried.

In view of the fact that the service did not really get under way until June this is a record of business that must be encouraging to all parties concerned. It should be particularly comforting to the advocates and supporters of the enterprise in Victoria if only for the reason that this traffic is created business.

It is particularly gratifying to note that the new ferry which will be in operation next year will reduce the time of the trip by at least ninety minutes. This will by no means decrease the pleasure which the journey affords to the more leisurely inclined. On the other hand it will be appreciated by those who naturally regard the water link of the motor itinerary as something in the nature of wasted time.

In any case the season's business has demonstrated the fact that Victoria has derived very considerable pecuniary advantage from the venture. Next year should see it easily doubled.

INSTRUCTING YOUTH.

When the Near Eastern question has been finally disposed of and the British political situation has become clearer it may be possible for Europe as a whole to remind herself that the League of Nations is still in existence. In the meantime there is no need for any country, whether holding membership in the League or not, to hesitate to preach peace to the younger generation instead of allowing it to grow up with a sword in its hand.

Because the United States is holding aloof from European and international affairs for the time being it does not follow that there are not agencies at work across the line that are actually doing more for the cause of peace than all the debates which have recently taken place within the body of the Assembly at Geneva. New Jersey has taken the lead and at the East Side Commercial and Manual Training High School of Newark a series of questionnaires have been issued to the pupils with the sole object of informing the youth of that particular training establishment that war is stupid and utterly wrong in principle. Here are a few samples of the questions employed:

The total amount spent for war by all nations was 188 billion dollars. Write this amount in figures.
In your opinion which of the nations, if any, were better off after the war than before?
The U. S. Battleship Maryland cost with equipment $42,000,000. The East Side High School cost about $450,000. Draw a line 1-16 of an inch long to represent the cost of the school, on the same scale draw another line to represent the cost of the ship.
The number of soldiers and sailors killed in the war was 12,950,570. This is how many times as large as the population of Newark, 450,000?

No better movement could be undertaken than this. If the adult population of the world is incapable of realizing that it is within its right and power to command Governments to do its bidding because the old custom of being led blindly has obtained such a strong hold, it is about time that the citizen of tomorrow should be given an opportunity to realize in time what force he and she may become in the world after the classroom shall have been left behind.

The New Jersey plan is simplicity itself. There is not the slightest reason why it should not be emulated throughout the British Empire and in all the member states of the League of Nations. It looks as if it might be developed into a real service for the God of War.

LOOK TO THE FUTURE.

Most people will recall the financial panic in Wall Street in 1907 and the miserable prospect which Canada faced in her poor crop of that year. Never did the prophets of gloom enjoy themselves so thoroughly. All sorts of things were going to happen. Victoria did not escape the shadow and we in common with the rest of the country began to paint sordid pictures of economic decay and national calamity. But the cloud rolled away and people breathed more freely.

What happened in Victoria soon after this unhappy year? Quite a number of Prairie people came West and purchased real estate in the capital city of British Columbia because it could be obtained for next to nothing. They were not so near-sighted as to believe for one moment that a young and thriving country with vast resources and almost limitless expanses of potential wealth would figuratively throw up its hands because the fates had not been kind. No; they came to Victoria and got a tangible interest in this community. What followed?

The people of this city began to realize that if Victoria property was worth money to the Prairieite it ought to be worth money to them. The natural adjustment took place. Property values increased overnight. The boom was on before most people were aware of it. We recall how rapidly optimism ousted despair and shoved it so far away that it looked as if it never would settle on the place again. And there was good reason to be cheerful. The prospect never looked rosier. But it went to many heads. Ordinary jubilation gave place to a wild orgy. Sanity abdicated in favor of utter recklessness and the piper has had to be paid amid much heart searching and grumbles.

Blue ruin apostles are again with us preaching the end of all things; but we recall that many of the calamitous ones of to-day were the most ardent boomsters of a decade ago.

Let us commune together. A business revival will be upon us before very long. What those far-seeing people saw after 1907 will be seen again by another generation from East of the Rockies. One fine morning we shall wake up to discover that much of our property has been absorbed by newcomers. The effect will be inspiring. It always is in such cases. It seems to be the way of the newer sections of the New World. There is nothing between the highest pinnacle of success and the deepest depths of despond and failure.

What will happen when the movement commences? The soldiers and the blue ruin talkers of to-day will become the boomsters of to-morrow. Mark our words. There will be the same old cry. Happily for them, however, and the rest of the more ordered minds, the penalty for the last "fuddle" will have exercised its influence. The coming revival will be a much saner and more moderate affair.

NOTE AND COMMENT

From the French envoy's description of the part he took in the conferences between Kemal Pasha and the British Commander-in-Chief one would think that the Turk is the kindest and gentlest individual outside of captivity.

Who would have imagined in 1911 that the year 1922 would witness Mr. Austin Chamberlain appealing for support for the man who delivered the Limehouse speech within the four walls of the Carlton Club? Ye gods and little fishes, what a shock for the back benches in this sanctuary of unadulterated Toryism!

If all those people who are looking glum and preaching blue ruin in the city of Victoria would work with the same amount of vigor in an effort to discover that there is really something worth while in this community there would soon be a marked difference in the general appearance of the city and an improvement in business too.

SINGLE TAX.

To the Editor:—Bishop MacDonald says my term, "land monopoly," is a question-begging epithet. If I begged any question I am not aware of it. He also says I "confound private ownership of land with landlordism." The object of private ownership of land is the pocketing of ground rent. The object of landlordism is identical. The terms are interchangeable. If there is any confounding it is in the Bishop's mind. I am not. The Bishop says that "to speak of the private ownership of a farm, or a field, or a city lot, as land monopoly is a flagrant misuse of words." The language is strong, yet it hardly makes up for the weakness of the economic thought. A farmer may be a landlord, a capitalist and a laborer. The selling value of the land exclusive of improvements, while often slight, is capitalized ground rent. It is in no sense produced or earned by the farmer, but is a community created value. If the annual ground rent goes into his pocket and stays there, that constitutes private ownership of land, landlordism and land monopoly. No matter how large or small the amount, the value of ground rent is the measure of the privilege which the community renders the individual holder. This improvement, stock and implements are capital, the return for which is interest. This management and work are termed labor, the return for which is wages. It is just the same with a city lot, the holder is in justice entitled to pay to the community annually the value of the privilege he enjoys, whether he keeps it vacant or puts a costly building on it full of goods. The Israelites like all primitive peoples, had the idea of class ownership of land pretty well fixed in their minds. I have given a few quotations from the Bible in support of this. "There is another" Ecclesiastes 5 and 9. "Moreover, the profit of the earth is for him. What can that mean but ground rent? I have already explained to the Bishop that the dire things which he complains of having happened to the poor people of Victoria as a result of single tax were entirely due to land boom, which is, of course, as far from single tax as the North is from the South. Yet no explanation seems to affect him. He continues persistently and doggedly to bark up the wrong tree at the single tax "chicken," apparently oblivious to the presence of the monstrous coon of land monopoly. The single tax is scientific, it is in accordance with natural law and justice. The kind of taxation which the Bishop advocates is hotch-potch, rule of thumb, unjust and inequitable. It has bewildered its own supporters, and, if they could only see it, he broken down. Its chickens of poverty, pauperism and crime are coming home to roost and shaking society to its foundations. The Bishop abhors "landlordism," let him root out his remedy. I would gladly consider it. The Bishop speaks of justice. By a remarkable coincidence so did Henry George. Let me quote him: "When it is proposed to abolish private property in land the first question that will arise is that of justice. Though often warped by habit, superstition and selfishness, into the most distorted forms, the sentiment of justice is yet fundamental to the human mind, and whatever dispute arouses the passions of men, the conflict is sure to rage, not so much as to the question, 'Is it wise?' as to the question, 'Is it right?' This tendency of popular discussions to take an ethical form has a cause. It springs from a law of the human mind, it rests upon a vague and instinctive recognition of what is probably the deepest truth we can grasp. That alone is wise which is just, that alone is enduring which is right. I bow to this arbitrament, I accept this test. And again: 'The laws of nature are the decrees of the Creator. There is written in them no right save that of labor; hence, as nature gives only to labor, the exertion of labor in production is the only title to exclusive possession. When non-producers can claim as right a portion of the wealth created by producers, the right of the producers to the fruit of their labor is to that extent denied. There is no escape from this position."

THE AUTO CAMPING SITE.

To the Editor:—It is hoped it will be possible to print the following regarding the proposed use of the city park at the Gorge for an auto camping site.

As a prelude, I wish to state that I am a very much interested person as the carrying out of this proposal would deteriorate my property facing the said park very much. But quite apart from this, there are, in my opinion, other considerations why the Gorge Park should not be used for this purpose, and there are also other more suitable sites. It is to bring these before your readers that I ask your indulgence.

In the first place, the park would not be large enough for the purpose for more than a year or two at the most, and would be spoiled for park purposes after being used for only a few years. Moreover, it slopes quite steeply towards the Gorge.

Second, as the portion nearest the Gorge Road has been cleared of trees and as practically all those remaining would have to be cleared, it would leave the whole open to the Gorge Road would be very unsightly to people traveling on this, one of the most beautiful roads of our suburbs. It must be borne in mind that a camp like this is nearly always a litter, which fact can be verified by those who have seen this year's attempt at Curtis Point. The only way in which this could be avoided would be to obtain a site sufficiently large to allow of clumps of trees being left and also to allow some little privacy for the campers. It is evident that an open site would not be so attractive as the one used this year which gave such satisfaction.

Thirdly, a great many Victorians do not realize how attractive this Gorge Park is, as shown by that portion which has been suitably cleared and beautified, and they also cannot realize how much it is made use of, especially by the children who flock there in the summertime. It is a delightful spot being away from the noisy amusements at the car terminus. To deprive the public of its use in order to utilize it for an unsuitable purpose would be, in my opinion, a great mistake.

Another point for consideration is the right of the voters to decide the matter by plebiscite, since it is their park.

VICTORIA.

To the Editor:—What does a stranger hear before he comes to Victoria? That Victoria is one of the most lovely places in the world if he were not for the people. On arrival here what does he hear? Why, that they cannot grow anything, that they cannot build and that there is no use trying to do anything, and that there is only one way left to keep Victoria on the map and that is to attract strangers here by advertising the beauties of the country and other attractions, and depend on getting what we can out of those visitors. Rather a poor business.

If he stays on, in spite of this, he finds on enquiry that there is plenty of timber, minerals and that with a plenty of water, of which there is also plenty, it is possible to grow almost every kind of good fruit and vegetables besides ordinary farm produce.

On reflection, he at once jumps to the conclusion that what he heard about the people was true and that the fault lies with them. If he still is able to stay on a little longer and break through the coating of ice and become acquainted with a few people of all classes, he finds that they are individually fine people, but obsessed with the idea that the people of Victoria collectively are hopeless.

Now everyone realizes, or should realize that the population is made up of individuals and that we have people, good people, who can utilize those gifts of nature. See the people of Victoria at work, when they have something in which they are really interested, and they are as good workers as any. Look at the Mother Country with comparatively few natural advantages, not nearly as many as we have. What has she done? Let up stop saying we have nothing here. It is a lie. We have everything we need.

Let each individual honestly ask himself if the above is not true and change his way of thinking, ceasing and acting, realizing that the population of Victoria is made up of individuals like himself. He will soon see that good results will follow.

OUTLINE OF HISTORY
The Romance of Mother Earth
TO-DAY'S INSTALMENT—33
Languages East and West of the Red Sea

Next to Aryan, philologists distinguish another group of languages which seem to have been made quite separately from the Aryan languages, the Semitic, Hebrew and Arabic are kindred, but they seem to have even a different set of root words from the Aryan tongues; they express their ideas of relationship in a different way; the fundamental ideas of their grammars are generally different. They were in all probability made by human communities quite out of touch with the Aryans, separately and independently.

Hebrew, Arabic, Abyssinian, ancient Assyrian, ancient Phoenician and a number of associated tongues are put together, therefore, as being derived from a second primary language, which is called the Semitic. In the very beginnings of recorded history we find Aryan-speaking peoples and Semitic-speaking peoples carrying on the liveliest intercourse of war and trade round and about the eastern end of the Mediterranean, but the fundamental differences of the primary Aryan and primary Semitic language oblige us to believe that in early Neolithic times, before the historical period, there must for thousands of years have been an almost complete separation of the Aryan-speaking and the Semitic-speaking peoples. The latter seem to have lived either in south Arabia or in north-west Africa.

In Different Worlds.

In the opening centuries of the Neolithic age the original Aryan speakers and the original Semitic speakers were probably living, so to speak, in different worlds with a minimum of intercourse. Racially, it would seem, they had a remote common origin; both Aryan speakers and Semites are classed as Caucasians, but while the original Aryan speakers seem to have been of Nordic race, the original Semites were rather of the Mediterranean type.

Philologists speak with less unanimity of a third group of languages, the Hamitic, which some declare to be distinct from, and others elided to, the Semitic. The weight of opinion inclines now toward the idea of some primordial connection, of these two groups.

The Hamitic group is certainly a much wider and more various language group than the Semitic or the Aryan, and the Semitic tongues are more of a family, have more of a common likeness than the Aryan. The Semitic languages may have arisen as some specialized proto-Hamitic group, just as the birds arose from a special group of reptiles. It is a tempting speculation, but one for which there is really no basis of justifying fact, to suppose that the rude primordial ancestor group of the Aryan tongues branched off from the proto-Hamitic speech forms at some still earlier date than the separation and specialization of Semitic. The Hamitic speakers to-day, like the Semitic speakers, are mainly of the Mediterranean Caucasian race.

Among the Hamitic languages are the ancient Egyptian and Coptic, the Berber languages (of the mountain people of north Africa, the Masked Tuaregs and other such peoples), and what are called the Ethiopic group of African languages in eastern Africa, including the speech of the Gallas and the Somalis.

The general grouping of these various tongues suggests that they originated over some great area to the west, as the primitive Semitic may have arisen to the east, of the Red Sea divide. That divide was probably much more effective in Pleistocene times, the sea extended across the west of the Isthmus of Suez, and a great part of lower Egypt was under water. Long before the dawn of history, however, Asia and Africa had joined at Suez, and those two language systems were in contact in that region. And if Asia and Africa were separated then at Suez, they lay, on the other hand, have been joined by way of Arabia and Abyssinia.

These Hamitic languages may have radiated from a centre on the African coast of the Mediterranean, and they may have extended over the then existing land connections very widely into western Europe.

The Common Feature of Gender.
All these three great groups of languages, it may be noted, the Aryan, Semitic and Hamitic, have one feature in common which they do not share with any other language, and that is grammatical genders; but whether that has much weight as evidence of a remote common origin of Aryan, Semitic, and Hamitic, is a question for the philologist rather than for the linguist. It does not affect the clear evidence of a very long and very ancient prehistoric separation of the speakers of these three diverse groups of tongues.

The bulk of the Semitic and Hamitic-speaking peoples are put by philologists with the Aryan among the Caucasian group of races. They are "white." The Semitic and Nordic "races" have a much more distinctive physiognomy; they seem, like their characteristic languages, to be more marked and specialized than the Hamitic-speaking peoples.

Across to the northwest of the Aryan and Semitic areas there must have spread a further distinct language system which is now represented by a group of languages known as the Turanian, or Ural-Altaic group. This includes the Lapish, of Lapland, and the Samoyed speech of Siberia; the Finnish language; Magyar, Turkish of Tartary, Manchu and Mongol; it has not as a group been so exhaustively studied by European philologists, and there is insufficient evidence yet whether it does or does not include the Korean and Japanese languages. H. B. Hulbert has issued a comparative grammar of Korean and certain of the Dravidian languages of India to demonstrate the close affinity he finds between them.

The One-Syllable Language of the Chinese.

A fifth region of language formation was southeastern Asia, where there still prevails a group of languages consisting of monosyllables without any inflections, in which the tone used in uttering a word determines its meaning. This may be called the Chinese, or Monosyllabic group, and it includes Chinese, Burmese, Siamese and Tibetan. The difference between any of these Chinese tongues and the more western languages is profound. In the Peking form of Chinese there are only about 420 primary monosyllables, and consequently each of these has to do duty for a great number of things and the different meanings are indicated either by the context or by saying the word in a distinctive tone.

The relation of these words to each other are expressed by quite different methods from the Aryan methods; Chinese grammar is a thing different in nature from English grammar; it is a separate and different invention. Chinese writers declare there is no Chinese grammar at all, and that is true if we mean by grammar anything in the European sense of inflections and concord. Consequently any such thing as a literal translation from Chinese into English is an impossibility. The very method of the thought is different. Their philosophy remains still largely a sealed book to the European on this account and vice versa, because of the different nature of the expressions.

MANLY GHOSTS IN OLD TOWER

Legends of Tower of London; Weird Spectres

The scene of the most dramatic haunting in the history of the Tower of London is shortly to be opened to the public.

Fifty-five years ago the Martin Tower was the Jewel Room, and since it has been the residence of the Keeper of the Crown Jewels. This grim old tower is now vacant, the keeper has been lodged elsewhere, leaving the Martin Tower and its grey ghost to be prepared for the sightseer.

No place in England is so full of ghost stories as the Tower of London. There are rooms in which, on certain nights, the sound of weeping is heard; there are stories of a rustling like that of a woman's silk dress which passes on in a certain corridor; there is the tale of the officer of the guard who, seeing a light one night in the window of the empty Norman chapel, climbed up on a ladder and saw something horrible and unbelievable; and there is the old legend of the shadow of the axe which falls across Tower Green, and of the white woman who walks on the night of May 19.

What the Sentry Saw.

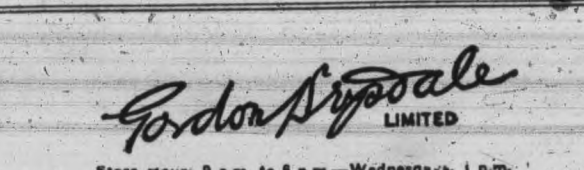

Many more are not so well known or have not been printed, such as the ghastly ghost that happened to a workman in a underground vault.

The ghost of the Martin Tower is, however, the most authentic haunting of all. Mr. Edward Lenthall Swift, Keeper of the Crown Jewels from 1812 till 1842, made a statement about it before he died, declaring that "to all that I have set forth as seen by myself I absolutely pledge my faith and my honor."

He told how, on a Sunday night in October, 1817, he was sitting at supper with his wife in the little old room in the Martin Tower with the doors closed and the blinds drawn, the only light that of two candles on the table. Suddenly his wife cried out in terror, and he saw a pale figure like a glass tube filled with a dense white and blue fluid hovering over the table. They watched it in horror for two minutes, and then it slowly moved round to Mrs. Swift, who shrieked, "Oh, heaven! It has seized me!" Her husband struck at it with a chair, and it slowly moved across the room and disappeared in the shadows.

Lunged at a Ghost.

Some time after a sentry posted before the door of this tower lunged at a grey, shapeless thing that came out of the building, and he was picked up unconscious and court-martialed. He would have been sentenced, but evidence was given that some

TREBLA REMODELED HERE FOR SERVICE NOW FINE CARRIER

Former Steamer Santa Cruz Purchased by Captain A. Berquist
Will Be Operated in General Trading and Towing Business

There are few who would recognize in the trim looking steamer Trebla the lines of the old steamer Santa Cruz, which for many years has been lying at the Inner Harbor wharf of the Pacific Salvage Company.

Owned originally by the Puget Sound Salvage Company, the Santa Cruz was brought here before the war from Seattle. Capt. Albert Berquist, of Vancouver, bought the vessel, and for several months past has been remodeling and overhauling the vessel in the Upper Harbor here. Capt. Berquist plans to operate the Trebla, which is the captain's given name reversed, in the coastwise and freight carrying trade and also in the towing business.

Built in 1888, the Trebla is 122 feet long, 31 1/2 feet beam and 10 1/2 feet deep. She was built of Oregon fir at San Francisco by J. Ringat, and for many years was operated as a freighter to Santa Cruz, Mexico, then to Honolulu, or to Alaska, or on the Seattle-San Francisco route. Later she was acquired by the Puget Sound Salvage Company of Seattle. Capt. Berquist has had the vessel completely overhauled and refitted. The hull is said to be as sound as on the day she first entered salt water.

Fine Equipment.
She is equipped with 250 horsepower engines and has a cruising radius of ninety days. The engines have been relined and a new water-tube boiler installed and new stack fitted. Steam steering gear, steam cargo and anchor winches and the latest in towing machines complete her equipment. She has capacity for 500 tons of coal, on short runs a large part of this space will be used for freight. At present the Trebla burns coal, but Capt. Berquist may later convert the furnaces for the consumption of fuel oil.

FORMER GERMAN SHIPS WILL PLY ON PACIFIC

Seattle, Oct. 18.—Details of the new steamship line composed of former German steamships which will fly the flag of Panama, and will ply between Puget Sound and other ports on the coast and Australia, are being worked out by W. L. Conyn and associates of San Francisco, who purchased the vessels from the United States Shipping Board for the Pacific Freighter Company, according to advices received in Seattle. Reconditioning of the vessels has been started on the East Coast, according to word received from Mr. Conyn. The fleet consists of the steamships Pequot, Casco, Isonomia, Arcadia, Ida and Pawnee, all built in Germany and seized as war prizes. It is expected that the steamship Pequot, the first of these carriers, will reach Puget Sound late this month or early in November. The vessel will probably come to North English in ballast to load a full cargo of lumber for Australia. The fleet was obtained under the terms of the pioneer purchase agreement as adjusted compensation for sailing vessels bought by the Pacific Freighter Company at the peak of tonnage prices. The entire fleet will be operated from ports on this coast to Australia, manned by German officers, according to advices received in Seattle. They have been placed under Panama registry to avoid American shipping laws and the consequent high cost of operation.

BARQUE HARALD AT PORTLAND FOR GRAIN

Astoria, Oct. 18.—The German barque Harald arrived here after an exceptionally slow run of sixty-nine days from Chingwangtao, Northern China. She proceeded to Portland where she will load grain for Europe. Captain Colthe, her master, reports encountering contrary winds and calms all the way across the Pacific. On August 27 V. Ronga, aged twenty-one, the cabin boy died and was buried at sea. During a dense fog on September 15 the barque had a narrow escape from colliding with the tank steamer Liebre, en route from Japan to California. The tanker crossed the Harald's bow and missed her by only a few feet.

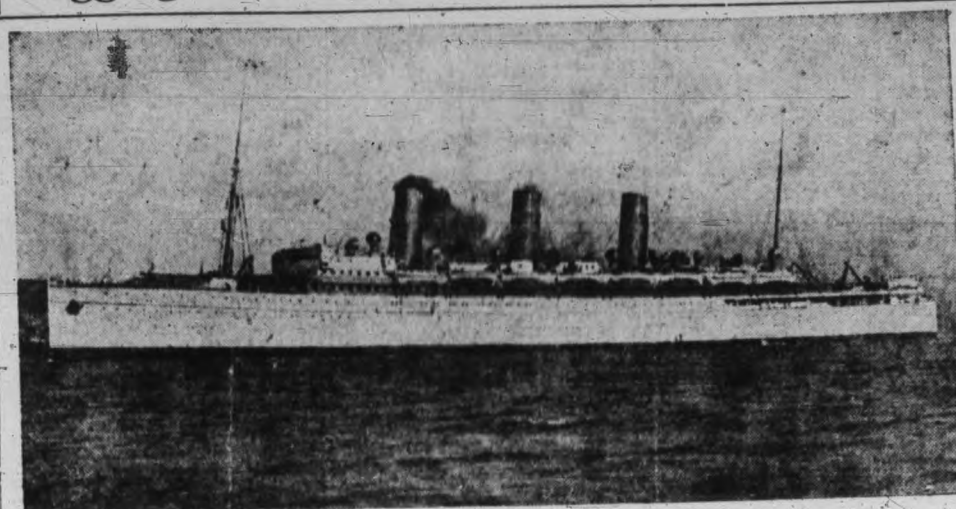

CURACAO CALLED TO LAND SHIPMENT OF CANS FROM ALASKA

The Admiral steamer Curacao called at the Rithet Docks at 11:30 o'clock last night en route from Alaska to Seattle to discharge 6,000 cases of empty salmon cans shipped south from Ketchikan. The shipment will be taken by scow to Kitimat. The Curacao got away about 5:30 o'clock this morning for Seattle.

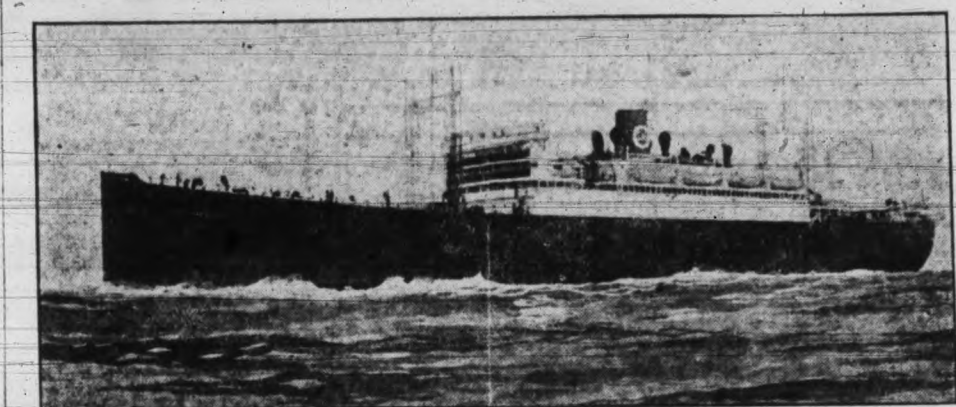

WOODEN STEAMERS ARE DISPOSED OF CHEAPLY

A number of wooden steamers built by Patterson & McDonald, of Seattle, for the Australian Government are reported to have been sold in London for $10,000 each. The ships sold are the Bethanga, Bundarra, Berringa, Birriwa and Bellata, each of about 3,000 tons gross. Several of their sister ships were purchased by Pacific Coast interests in 1915 and employed in the coastwise trade.

BEATRICE HAULED OUT AT YARROWS

Vessel Comes Here for Inspection Following Grounding in North

The Canadian Pacific steamer Princess Beatrice reached Esquimalt this morning from the North via Vancouver to be surveyed following a slight mishap on the Skeena River. On her last trip North the Princess Beatrice went aground on foggy weather, but succeeded in getting off without any trouble. On her arrival here to-day the Princess Beatrice was turned over to Yarrows, Ltd., and arrangements were made at noon to haul the vessel out on the marine ways at Lang Cove. The staunch wooden-hulled vessel has withstood a good many bumps during the lengthy period she has been plying in the coast service, and it is not expected that any serious damage was sustained. As a precautionary measure, ordered by the company officials, the vessel was hauled out for inspection. Consequently the Beatrice will miss one round voyage between Vancouver and Prince Rupert, on which service she is regularly engaged. The company expect to have the vessel back in commission to resume her sailings north on schedule next Wednesday night from Vancouver.

WAITED VAINLY FOR FATHER AND BROTHERS YEARS, THEN EMIGRATED

After waiting five years to hear from her father and three brothers who went off to war in 1917, Miss Rachel Dubofsky, of Warsaw, gave up all hope, sold out her belongings, and sailed from Hamburg to take up her home with a married sister in the United States, arriving at New York on the Cunarder Saxonia. Her love is still strong for her native country and she said she never would have left it but for the wiping out of her family in the world war. She said the war had never crushed her that she would never unless she migrated to a new land far away.

Largest Class.—The Y. M. C. A. had the largest young men's gymnasium class on the floor last evening that has occurred in the past three years. Thirty-two members were present. Archie McKinnon, assistant physical director, was in charge. There is a noticeable increase in all classes this year.

Made Many Visits.—Methodist deaconesses in Canada made 50,000 visits last year, especially amongst children, business girls, the poor and the fallen. They reach 40,000 children each year, and spent 4,500 hours in nursing last year. There are now six deaconesses in the Canadian Methodist Church.

Revival in Wales.—Fervid revival scenes in Swansea, Aberllynny, and other parts of Wales are taking place and hundreds of converts are being baptized. People are said to be praying and singing with almost ungovernable fervor. The London Daily News correspondent couples the revival with the prevalent distress due to unemployment, thus causing people to think more deeply than ordinarily.

Drug Traffic in Canada.—Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer, secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada, says that the fight against drugs is being waged with success. Whereas ten years ago 34,000 pounds of opium came into Canada annually, last year only 1,700 pounds came in. As an indication that prohibition did not result in an increase in the use of drugs, he says that of the 845 convictions last year in Canada, 562 were in the wet provinces of Quebec and British Columbia, while Ontario, with a population almost equal to both of them, had only 66 convictions.

PROPOSE POTATO GROWERS' ASSOCIATION

PRAIRIES DUMPING SURPLUS MEN ON TO B.C. FOR WINTER

Promises of Work, Mild Climate, Relief Used to Lure Them Westward

Freight Trains Swarm With Hoboes Bound for Vancouver

First touch of weather frosty on the Prairies has sent untold men scurrying over the mountains into British Columbia where it will not be so cold during the winter months, according to reports to labor bureaus here.

From Prince George on the Canadian National and Kamloops and Revelstoke on the C. P. R. come similar reports of the great trek. Every freight train that comes into these divisional points is found to be literally swarming with men, riding the brakes, hanging on to the ends of cars, stowed away inside of partly filled cars and hobnobbing it to the coast cities in all sorts of ways.

At these chief divisional points the men drop off the freight cars for a couple of days' rest and to feed up and then swing aboard and continue their way westward by one of the next freight.

Even Fernie down on the Crow's Nest line reports men going through there bound this way at an average rate of 30 a day. They jump off the freight trains as they come into the railway yards.

All headed for Vancouver.

Government employment agents meet them and ask them whether they want work. Their reply always is "no" and they add that they are going to Vancouver to spend the winter. After resting up a day they jump a freight and continue their journey.

Many professional hoboes and characters of all sorts are among the travelers.

It was explained to-day that British Columbia sent 5,000 men to the Prairie wheat farms this year. Now they are practically all on their way back here. The trouble is, it was further explained, that they are bringing with them thousands of men and hoboes who came from Eastern Canada and United States to the Prairies during the summer and have heard that the coast is a fine place to spend the winter and that last year men were well supported.

"It looks as if Vancouver is going to have a large number of unemployed and other things again this winter," they are going through this town on freight trains bound to Vancouver," was the message sent by Fernie to-day.

Prairie Officials To Blame.

Evidence was obtained to-day that the prairie provinces are really engaged in a campaign of dumping all unemployed and hoboes on to British Columbia to care for during the winter.

It has been found that prairie officials are telling all men that there is lots of work in the lumber industry of B.C. and that the jobs offered pay well and men get good food.

Discovery that men were being given this information as a means of getting them out of the prairies resulted to-day in J. H. McVety, superintendent of labor, bureau, sending a message to the labor officials of the prairies pointing out that this dumping men on to B. C. is unfair.

"It is no solution of the problem of surplus labor for one province to direct unemployed to other provinces unless there is some assurance that work is available for them," Mr. McVety said in his message.

Bad Prospect For Outsiders.

"As residential conditions for relief purposes have been established in this Province, these men will find themselves in an extremely bad position this winter and in their own interests should be discouraged rather than encouraged to come this way."

Mr. McVety also pointed out that the stories being given out on the Prairies of a great demand for loggers in this Province are untrue, as the demand has been completely met and any way the men who are directed to come here, especially the Easterners, have had no experience in handling the big trees of this Province.

"If Eastern men desire to break into the logging game as it is carried on on the coast they should come here during the summer months, when there is somewhat of a shortage of men in the industry," Mr. McVety said. "Coming as they do with very little money at this season of the year, they invariably become a charge on the community."

TO THE PUBLIC

I wish to thank the public for the support accorded me during the past year and to announce that owing to an unnecessary misunderstanding on the part of the management, my engagement at the Capitol Theatre come to an unexpected and sudden termination on Saturday, Oct. 21st.

It has been my constant endeavor to establish a standard of good music, which I honestly believe has been an important factor in fostering clientele for the theatre.

Whenever I appear I hope to maintain through personal effort, that which I have always prized most dearly, the good will of a generous public.

Yours fraternally,

Bays Do Not Relish Loss of Two Points

Decision In Allan's Case Causes Hudson's Bay to Consider Appeal to B. C. F. A.; Young Footballer Is Suspended For Month While His Team Must Forfeit Points Without Chance of Replay; Games Are Arranged For Saturday

Trouble is brewing in the football camp. The Hudson's Bay football club resents the punishment it received at the hands of the district governing board of the British Columbia Football Association last night for playing George Allan in the opening game of the season. The Bays may appeal the decision and take their case before the executive of the B. C. F. A., which is to meet here over the week-end.

The district council, which consists of Jimmie Adam, Alex. Pedon, Joe Bloom, Fred McConnell and Billie Cull, held a session last Friday and gathered again last night, when they decided to suspend Allan for one month from October 4 to November 4, and to cancel the club for playing him, as well as taking away the two points which the Bays received for the win.

Cause of Trouble.

George Allan was signed by the Victoria West football club, and when he was not used in the first game of the season he signed another registration form to play with the Hudson's Bay in the Wednesday League. He played in the opening game of the league, which the Bays won from the Garrison.

The Bays Get a Jolt.

The Bays then came in for censure and received an extra jolt when it was discovered that they must lose their points. It was at first thought that the game would be ordered a replay but according to the constitution no replay can be ordered and the points must be forfeited. While the Bays are not credited with a loss they are nevertheless shy the two points.

As a result of this decision, the Bays are now leaders of the Wednesday League. They have played but one game and have two points to their credit as a result of a win. The Bays have appeared twice and were victorious on both occasions. The loss of two points will turn them a total of but two points instead of four. The Garrison game really counts as a loss for them.

Not "Georgie" Allen

Allen, the central figure in the discussion, has been confused with "Georgie" Allen, a Scotman who played with the Thistles last year and is now in California. George Allan is a native son and player for the West last year. He is only a youngster and is a promising player.

At the meeting of the governing board of the Victoria and District Football Association held last evening the games for Saturday were arranged and the schedule for the remainder of the season was decided. The Thistles protested against the way the original schedule had been drawn up, and it was decided to give each of the clubs in the home game at the Victoria a home game at the Victoria. A proportion of the gate will be taken by the association for first class condition.

The games arranged for Saturday are as follows:
Sons of England vs. Victoria Wests at Royal Athletic Park; referee, Percy Payne.
Sons of Canada vs. Thistles at Central Park; referee, Joe Cullen.
Crusaders vs. Metropolitans at Beacon Hill; referee, Ockwell.

The schedule for the rest of the season will be as follows:
October 28—Metropolitans vs. Sons of England, Thistles vs. Crusaders and Victoria Wests vs. Sons of Canada.
November 4—Victoria Wests vs. Metropolitans, Thistles vs. Sons of England and Crusaders vs. Sons of Canada.
November 11—Sons of Canada vs. Metropolitans, Thistles vs. Victoria Wests and Sons of England vs. Crusaders.
November 18—Metropolitans vs. Thistles, Sons of England vs. Sons of Canada and Crusaders vs. Victoria Wests.

December 25—Metropolitans vs. Crusaders, Victoria Wests vs. Sons of England and Thistles vs. Sons of Canada.

December 2—Sons of England vs. Metropolitans, Crusaders vs. Thistles and Sons of Canada vs. Victoria Wests.

BREAKING UP BALL GAMES OUGHT TO BE EASY FOR THIS "GUY"

Here's a choice morsel from The Cranbrook Courier: "Smoky" McPeake, our own darling baseball catcher, was prevented from making a home run at Penticton early this week, when the appeared before the police magistrate heavily ironed, charged with breaking from lawful custody. "Smoky" it will be remembered, made a sensational escape from jail after being arrested on a number of charges."

RUGBY AND SOCCER WANTED IN UNION

Delegates to B.C.A.A.U. Meeting to Make Recommendations; Fry Is President

Recommendations are being forwarded from the local branch of the B.C.A.A.U. to the parent body that steps be taken to try and bring association and rugby football within the fold of the amateur union.

At the annual meeting of the local board last night there was a desire on the part of the delegates to see that these two sports were enrolled. It was felt that, especially in soccer, the rules were being broken on Vancouver Island, and it was believed that if these two major sports were brought within the union there would be a better chance to perform a house-clearing.

The local delegates to the annual meeting of the B.C.A.A.U. will support these recommendations.

Football was once under the control of the B.C.A.A.U. but withdrew some time ago and an agreement was reached in the East between the D.F.A. and the A.A.U. of Canada. An effort was made to hold the annual meeting in the city, but it was suggested two years ago, but they decided the union and ball were remained outside ever since.

Chief of Police John Fry was elected to the presidency, with W. B. Birge, vice-president, and Walter McGuire as secretary.

Arthur Manson and W. G. Bird were appointed delegates to attend the meeting on the mainland with Dan O'Sullivan, a governor of the A.A.U. of Canada, as alternative.

It was decided to grant the Victoria Amateur Football Association affiliation, a list of all clubs and players to be filed with the secretary in lieu of individual registration.

The financial and secretary's reports were read, both being satisfactory.

The organizations represented at the meeting were the Victoria Amateur Hockey League, the Victoria Amateur Baseball League, the B.C. section of the C.A.S.A., the Victoria C.R. Athletic Association, the Victoria Lacrosse Club, Victoria Ladies Basketball League, Police Mutual Hockey Association and the Y.M.C.A.

Much Interest in Game.
With the interest in what are commonly known as Summer sports, the coming of the fall season is commencing to take a prominent place in the sports calendar of the city. All the leading billiard parlors are active and already the formation of the various house leagues is under way.

The interest in the game is such that a great revival of the sport can be looked forward to with some degree of assurance. While a limited number of leagues will undoubtedly be formed, the opportunity for competition is far too small. More leagues would encourage participation in the sport.

It is surprising how many billiard players have learned the game in the Old Country," stated Mr. Vinson. "Probably eighty per cent. of those who play a fair game of billiards learned it in England. It is regrettable that a game which is to all intents and purposes a Canadian game should have been introduced to the development of players. The superiority of the English game over the American is evidenced by the fact that Canada has adopted the former."

EDMONTON RUGGERS MAY NOT PLAY GAME HERE WHILE ON TOUR
Vancouver, Oct. 18.—The Edmonton rugby team, which is coming to Victoria to play the Island team, will be unable to visit Vancouver Island, but will fulfill its engagements in this city on November 4 and 5. These facts were communicated in a letter read at last evening's meeting of the Vancouver Rugby Union.

The committee appointed the following committee to select the Vancouver representative team for McKechnie Cup matches: J. L. Gurn, R. C. Cooper and Reg. Woodward.

TWO MORE SWIMMING RECORDS BROKEN AT HONOLULU YESTERDAY

Honolulu, Oct. 18.—More world's records were smashed here last night. Warren Keisela broke his own world's record for the 100-yard backstroke by swimming in one minute 12.3 seconds. His former record was 1:14. Gwatha Shand, of New Zealand, swam the 440-yard free style in six minutes 14.2 seconds, thus bettering Sybil Bauer's record of 6:16.

VICTORIA LADIES WIN HUNTING CUP

Scored Eight Points to Vancouver's Four in Second Half of Match

Another golfing trophy has been brought to Victoria. The Hunting Cup, donated by Mrs. W. F. Hunting, of Vancouver, joined the cabinets of silverware which grace local club-houses as a result of the trophy match of twelve ladies golfers in which they defeated their Vancouver sisters at the Oak Bay course yesterday afternoon.

The capital representatives were in a form and lost in only three matches. Mrs. Rithet, Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Patterson were the only players to go down, seven others winning the points. Mrs. Hurdie, halved their matches.

Wen by Superb Golf.
The Hunting Cup was donated for home and home matches between four clubs—Victoria, Vancouver, Colwood and Colwood clubs, while the Vancouver players were to come from Shaughnessy and Jericho links. The match was played yesterday afternoon at the Victoria Golf Club.

QUOITS
The first round for the medal presented to the club by Captain Aitken will be played off on Saturday. Entries will be taken on the ground when the draw will take place. As this will be the last medal competition this season a large entry is looked for.

The club has had a very successful year, capturing every competition in British Columbia, and in addition to these, Thomas Scouler at Vancouver, pitching ten-pound quoits, for nine hours came back with the championship of B. C. B. McMillan lifted the club championship also the league medal, and then came the Island team, getting the best of Nanaimo by thirty-six shots. A club meeting will be held at the Willows on Thursday night at 7.30.

Uniform Rules For Two Hockey Loops

Pacific Coast and Prairie Leagues Adopt Rules Which Will Avoid Confusion In Inter-League Games; Penalty Shot, Blue Lines and Body Check Rules Are Retained; Drawn Up For Six-Man Hockey

With the adoption of six-man hockey by the Pacific Coast Hockey Association it became necessary to draft new rules. The Coast moguls went into conference with the heads of the Western Canada Hockey League and drafted rules which will be used in both circuits, due to the fact that an inter-league series has been arranged which makes it necessary to have uniform rules.

Many of the feature rules, introduced by the Patricks, have been retained, including the blue lines, the penalty shot and the body check.

Such undue criticism is leveled at referees and players in all sports by spectators who are unfamiliar with the rules. In order that the fans here may wise up on the many rules, The Times is publishing a complete set.

The Club Colors.
The two leagues have also adopted colors for the various clubs, which will be as follows: Victoria, blue and gold; Vancouver, maroon and white; Seattle, red, white and blue; Regina, red, white and blue; Saskatoon, garnet and white; Edmonton, white and green; Calgary, yellow and black.

The new rules are as follows:

Composition of Team.
Sec. 1. A team shall be composed of six (6) players, who shall be bona fide members of the club they represent. No team shall have more than nine (9) men in uniform, the personnel of whom shall not be changed during the game. Each player shall wear a number on the back of his sweater, which number he shall retain while he is under contract with respective clubs.

Commencement of a Game and Definition of a Face.
Sec. 2. The game shall be commenced and renewed by a face in the center of the ice between the two teams. The referee shall have the privilege of choosing the goals to defend at the start of the game. The puck shall be faced by the referee, and the referee shall be the stick of the opponents or by the referee dropping the puck on the ice between the sticks of the players facing and the referee giving signal to play.

Time of Match and How Won.
Sec. 3. Three twenty minutes of actual play with an intermission of ten minutes between each period shall be decided by the team scoring the greatest number of goals during the sixty minutes. Goals shall be changed every twenty minutes. In case of a tie after playing the specified minutes, after ten minutes rest play will continue for not more than twenty minutes, without change of goals of either side. If a goal is scored during the extra time, the game will be continued until one team secures a goal, provided that not more than two extra minutes shall be played, with ten minutes rest and change of goal between periods. DOMINION

The Boy is a coward—the holdest thing he ever did was sing out loud in church. He loves the girl, and his rival is a bully who makes the Boy's life miserable. One night he and the bully are calling on the girl. The visit is interrupted by the sheriff, bringing word that one of the village school-keepers has been shot by a tramp, a rough customer with whom the Boy has already had one encounter. Every man is sworn in as deputy. The Boy gets lost from the posse and the dark night is full of things that frighten him. In terror he runs home and hides. His old grandmother tells him a wonderful story of how his grandfather had been a coward but, with a magic talisman in his possession, he had redeemed himself and covered himself with glory in the Civil War. Grandma gives the Boy the charm, and he goes out, captures the tramp single-handed in a series of incidents both thrilling and funny, and fights the bully to a knockout. Grandma then tells him her story was a fib—the charm is her umbrella handle. All he needed was self-confidence!

COLUMBIA

It is with mixed feelings that the average man leaves the Columbia Theatre after view "Ten Nights in a Barroom," the picture being featured by Manager Clark, the dominant sensation being surprise at the popularity of the attraction as shown by the all-day throng, melodramatic though the offering be, the audience hugely enjoyed it, especially the weeping over the death of "Little Mary."

There is an atmosphere of almost religious solemnity in the demeanor of the patrons as they leave, presumably due to the force with which the story of debt and destruction is told. Yet the picture is one of melodrama to the extreme, with the boss villain swallowed up in flames in the last scenes, his lieutenant drowned despite a thrilling attempted rescue, and lots more similar action.

Chief interest through the play centres on the actions of six-year-old Baby Ivy Ward, who gives real life to her appeals to daddy to "come home, 'cause mamma is crying," and wins victory over Demon Rum and the saloon only by herself suffering death.

CAPITOL

There's no dearth of talent in the cast chosen to support Wallace Reid in his new Paramount picture, "The Ghost Breaker," which is the feature at the Capitol Theatre this week.

Lila Lee, the leading woman, plays Marchesa Maria Theresa, a Spanish girl and owner of an ancient castle in which the ghost episodes of the new picture transpire. Miss Lee is proving highly capable and popular in Spanish roles, this being the third successive part of that type she has portrayed. The other two were with Mr. Reid in "The Dictator," and as the wife of Gallardo, played by Rodolph Valentino, the star in "Blood and Sand."

Walter Hiers, who is featured employs burnt cork for the first time in his screen career. He has an ideal comedy role as Kusty Snow, the negro valet of Warren Jarvis, the hero. A great deal of fun will be derived from the ghost scenes in the old Spanish castle when Jarvis and Rusty encounter the armored spirits and Rusty almost turns white with fright, he having a particular aversion to ghosts.

Archaeus Carewa has the role of the Duke D'Alva, the suave Spanish neighbor of the Marchesa, who, it is revealed in the story, is at the bottom of the ghost scare, to further his plans to marry the Marchesa.

J. F. MacDonald portrays Sam Marcum, a Kentuckian, who attacks Jarvis as the result of a feud of long standing. He returns to New York and decides to go to Spain with the Marchesa, whom he accidentally meets in his hotel, and help her rid the castle of its ghosts.

Frances Raymond is Aunt Mary Jarvis, the kindly old aunt of young Jarvis. Several other interesting but minor roles have been entrusted to players of reputation and ability.

The picture is an adaptation by Jack Cunningham of the successful play by Paul Dickson and Charles W. Clodard—Alfred Green directed.

ROYAL VICTORIA

John M. Stahl has woven many dramatic elements with masterly skill in the production of his latest First National attraction, "One Clear Call," which will be the feature at the Royal Victoria Theatre again today. Behind the spectacular incidents is a story of gripping human interest with the pathetic heart appeal that has been equalled only by the traditional stage classics, such as "The Music Master" or "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

If there is any one thing that has distinguished the work of this producer in the past it has been the simple, effective way in which he has handled tense climaxes without either overdoing the sentiment or allowing the actors to overplay their roles. In "One Clear Call," the action of which takes place for the most part in a small southern town, Mr. Stahl has a greater assemblage of incidents of audience interest than in any previous picture he has made. The spectacular scenes, however, are handled with such genuine sincerity, if we are to believe those who have already seen the production, that the story runs along in unbroken continuity without constant breaks caused by over-emphasis of spectacular effects.

Henry B. Walthall, Milton Sills and Claire Windsor play the leads in an unusually large cast of all-star calibre.

While Robert B. McIntyre, Goldwyn casting director, will not be quoted as to the reason, he believes that American picture-goers are beginning to demand a type of leading woman more like that popular in Europe, a somewhat more mature and experienced woman, rather than the flapper type. Is this another result of the importation of foreign films?

PLAYHOUSE TO OPEN NEW SHOW

"What Happened to Jones" to Be Staged To-night

The screamingly funny farce, "What Happened to Jones," will open the Playhouse to-night, and will continue to hold the boards for the rest of the week with a matinee on Saturday. For extremely ludicrous comedy no play has ever been written that surpasses this production, and with the excellent cast that Mr. Haneke has chosen a finished performance is assured. "How Jones," a commercial traveller for a hymn-book house masquerades as the Bishop of Ballarat and how the real bishop turns up, and is mistaken for an escaped lunatic provide situations that would make even a sphinx laugh. The Playhouse has been a riot of laughter with the potted comic opera for the past ten weeks and now, while the comedy is still to be maintained, it is being provided in an entirely different way, and one which will no doubt prove equally as popular. To-night will be the first performance for which there has already been a large advance sale of seats. The box office is open all day, and those intending to go should book seats early.

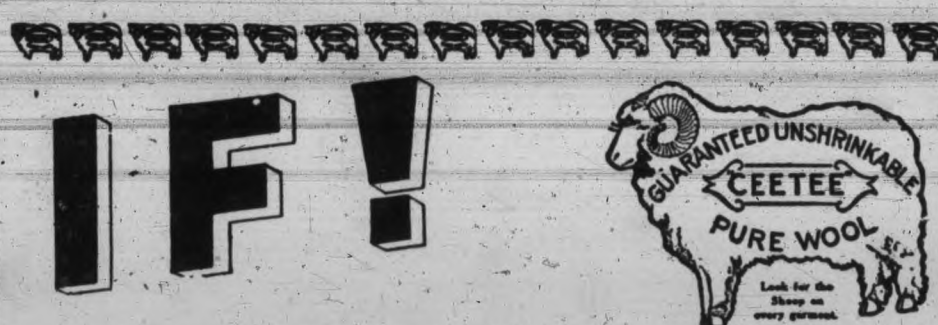

The many admirers of Earle Williams, Vitaphone star, will welcome him in his new picture, "You Never Know." Earle Williams to approximate the popular fancy, must be in the exact centre of as much life and activity as can be concentrated upon him, and to be the smiling, handsome, resourceful hero of the whole business. "You Never Know" will delight you with Williams, and with his beautiful leading woman, Gertrude Astor, who never appeared more beautiful and vivacious. The story carries one from the fascinating mysteries of the San Francisco waterfront to the seething capitals of South America. As "Eddie Manning" Earle Williams is in his element. Manning is a secret service operative, sent to the coast for the purpose of breaking up the ring of gunrunners and filibusters which were backed by wealthy Americans, and were causing serious embarrassment to the United States Government. Disguised, he is taken into the employ of the very millionaire who is financing the South American revolution. That he falls hopelessly in love with his daughter complicates matters, but happily does not interfere with his performance of duty. The feature is brimful of spirited action, including some big scenes.

SHIP PASSED THROUGH PUMICE

Crew Had Unusual Experience Near Caledonia

Times Correspondent.
Sydney, Australia, Oct. 18.—Passing through 500 miles of pumice floating on the top of the waves was the extraordinary experience of the crew of the steamship Hollywood near New Caledonia recently.

The ship was on a trip to the French settlement when the look-out reported an extraordinary appearance on the sea. It seemed as if the waves were made of pumice, both jumps and powder. The captain slowed down, not knowing how the waves were made. He was very close in, and the ship went ahead without impediment. For four days and nights the ship went through the pumice which seemed to disintegrate the water to a depth of about 10 feet.

Apparently a submarine volcano had blown out, though no tidal waves had been reported in the South Seas for many months.

A Tragedy
"And so they eloped in the dead of night, two dusky maidens borne off in the arms of their lovers to a motorboat that was gently purring in the bay outside. Willingly they left the enticing shades of their tropical island for a deserted spot where their happiness would be uninterrupted."

It sounds like the beginning of a moving picture romance on the inevitable desert island in the South Seas. But this romance is true, and it is a tragedy also.

Two maidens lived on the Gilbert Islands, just on the equator, to the north and west of Fiji. Their father, a chief, would not hear of the two dusky suitors wooing them, for he had other designs. Hence the elopement in a motorboat, for the Gilbert Islanders are sufficiently civilized to understand the modern uses of gasoline.

They eloped accordingly, the two maidens and their suitors. They set out for a lonely island, where they intended to make their home and live happily ever after.

Three months later the steamship Suva, which trades to the unfrequented islands of the western Pacific, picked up the motorboat. Two men and one woman in the last stages of hunger and exhaustion. The fourth in the party was a woman, who had other designs. Hence the elopement in a motorboat, for the Gilbert Islanders are sufficiently civilized to understand the modern uses of gasoline.

For weeks they had drifted about on a stormy sea, and their water and provisions ran short. Then when they were about to succumb they were rescued. Now the survivors have gone back to the Gilbert Islands to make their peace with the old chief and tell him of the fate of his second daughter.

Unseemly Conduct
A ball given in the town hall, Sydney, in aid of the Red Cross by the artists of New South Wales has brought forth so many allegations of scandal that the Lord Mayor has had to draft new regulations governing the sale of liquor on the premises.

The function was the largest and most fashionable ever given in Sydney. Everyone who was anyone was there in fancy dress. Towards 3 a.m., however, it seems that quantities of drink were procured and then the "orgy" began. Not a few men were carted away by the police in a state of impenetrable unconsciousness. Finally the Australian equivalent of the janitor called in the constables and these put an unofficial end to the proceedings by turning out the lights and emptying the building.

All Sydney society was agog at the disclosures and every effort was made to hush them up. However, an enterprising newspaper got the "story" and then an official report was asked for, which bore out most of the allegations, though many of those present say they saw nothing beyond the bounds of propriety at any time in the course of the night.

RESENTS DELAY IN ENACTMENT OF
U.S. SUBSIDY BILL
Vital to Future of Merchant Marine, Declares Commissioner Plummer

New York, Oct. 18.—Delay in enactment of the administration's Ship Subsidy Bill would mean "playing into the hands" of foreign shipping interests where opposition to the legislation should make clear to the American people that it is vital to the future of their merchant marine.

Commissioner Plummer, of the United States Shipping Board, declared in an address to-day before the convention of industrial engineers on board the steamship President Harding here.

Mr. Plummer emphasized the importance of the bill's provisions for co-ordinating and shipping service for the benefit of American exporters, which was possible, he said, only through its Government aid provisions.

VICTORIA-ANACORTES
FERRIES OFF DUTY
NOW UNTIL SPRING
After Friday of this week, there will be no motor car and passenger ferry service between Sidney and Anacortes. The steamer Gleaner, Captain Payne, was taken off the run about a month ago and the Hester King, Captain R. A. Crosby, will lay off the run after Friday.

On April 1 next Captain Crosby will resume the ferry service with a handsome new motor car and passenger ferry of good speed and having a capacity of about fifty cars. This boat will make two or more round trips a day and will handle the Victoria-Anacortes business exclusively. The new ferry is now under construction.

The two ferries this season have carried over 4,000 cars and 15,000 passengers and the respective interests operating the ferries have been highly commended for their enterprise in acting as pathfinders for this service, which has resulted in such a large number of additional tourists visiting Vancouver Island this summer.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any drugist, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey or word syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

"At the present time the line ends some forty-six miles from Prince George and without completion to this point, the road would be deprived of the advantages which would accrue from having this connection made, and thus tap whatever traffic possibilities exist in that district," he went on.

"On the other hand," he said, "it cannot be definitely proven that such extension is warranted, either by future traffic prospects, both local and through, or by the amount of colonization that would ensue from such extension, or by both, then it seems to me that the whole project must be reviewed, and its future, definitely and finally determined."

"What are the possibilities of developing local traffic?" he was asked. "The reports of Messrs. Sullivan and Dennis are not very optimistic," he replied, "but not only should the reports themselves, but the data on which the findings were made should

The money paid to Mr. Staneland was paid out of the Police Commission's funds, not out of the Council's funds. The Police Commission has a perfect right to spend its money as it sees fit. The Finance Committee has no control over it in this regard. It is quite possible, too, that the cheque was honored before we approved the voucher. We have no reason to hold up such vouchers from the Police Commission unless there is actually something wrong with them. I cannot see that the matter concerns the

BEAR'S MASTER SAYS AMUNDSEN WILL SUCCEED

Capt. C. S. Cochran Convinced Explorer Will Fly Across the Pole

Inspector S. T. Wood, of R.C.M.P., Returns from Nome

Seattle, Oct. 18.—Firm conviction that Capt. Roald Amundsen, the explorer, and his Norwegian pilot, Lieut. Oscar Omdal, will complete their intended flight by monoplane across the north pole from Wainwright, Alaska, to Spitzbergen, successfully next Spring, was asserted by Capt. C. S. Cochran, commander of the United States coast guard cutter Bear, upon his arrival in Seattle from the north.

The explorer, Cochran said, intends to pay one more visit to civilization before he hops off for the greatest and most daring adventure of his career. His plan is to drive to Nome by dog team some time during the winter to keep his animals in condition and to send final cable messages regarding matters of importance to his polar expedition.

Returning to his quarters in Wainwright he will then await the season when the long Arctic day sets in. May or June, to start on his perilous journey over the top of the world.

Captain Cochran reported that ice conditions in the Arctic had not been so bad since 1906 as he encountered this season.

Wood From Yukon.
The Bear brought four passengers, Inspector S. T. Wood of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, his wife and son, from Nome, and E. T. Hend-lee from Unalakleet.

The Woods are en route to Vancouver where Mrs. Wood is to receive needed medical attention, and their son to attend school. The inspector will return north in a few weeks.

Hendlee is one of a party of scientists sent north by the Colorado Museum of Denver some months ago. Three other members returned recently on the steamship Victoria with many interesting fossilized specimens of prehistoric tropical life which were found buried deep in the Arctic strata.

The Bear brought down several large shipments of furs from various government stations along Bering Sea and the Arctic.

AMERICAN SHIPPING.
Baltimore, Oct. 18.—The American merchant marine has the largest percentage of new ships and nearly the smallest of old ships, according to a compilation by Lloyd's Register of Shipping, which for the first time has analyzed the shipping of the world, according to age and effectiveness.

The percentage of the total tonnage now in existence for each five years of age is as follows: Under five years old, 40.8; five and under ten years, 14.6; ten and under fifteen years, 14.5; fifteen and under twenty years, 11.9; twenty and under twenty-five years, 9.7; twenty-five years and over, 11.5.

As the average life of a steamer is about eighteen years, these ships of twenty-five years and over may be generally regarded as ineffective from the point of view of world competition and also a fair proportion of those over twenty years and under twenty-five.

After Friday of this week, there will be no motor car and passenger ferry service between Sidney and Anacortes. The steamer Gleaner, Captain Payne, was taken off the run about a month ago and the Hester King, Captain R. A. Crosby, will lay off the run after Friday.

On April 1 next Captain Crosby will resume the ferry service with a handsome new motor car and passenger ferry of good speed and having a capacity of about fifty cars. This boat will make two or more round trips a day and will handle the Victoria-Anacortes business exclusively. The new ferry is now under construction.

The two ferries this season have carried over 4,000 cars and 15,000 passengers and the respective interests operating the ferries have been highly commended for their enterprise in acting as pathfinders for this service, which has resulted in such a large number of additional tourists visiting Vancouver Island this summer.

PRICE OF ORIGIN MARKED ON EGGS

Importation of Washington Eggs Will Be Decreased by New Regulation

Although Canada has only a duty of 3 cents per dozen on eggs entering the Province of British Columbia from the United States against the Fordney tariff of 5 cents on Canadian eggs going into the United States, new regulations are expected to help in balancing the difference.

Truck load after truck load of Washington eggs enter Vancouver and other points of the Province every week for sale or for storage. The 3 cents duty means practically nothing to the vendors. Very few of these eggs reach the local market. Much of the profit will be taken up in waiting, and local poultrymen anticipate that it will not be long before this competition will be eliminated.

Foreign eggs are to be marked foreign to effect the selling of storage eggs for fresh eggs. It is also the intention of the Government to prosecute any firm selling storage eggs for fresh.

No changes were registered on the retail market to-day. Prices are as follows:

Where Scores Died in Forest Fire

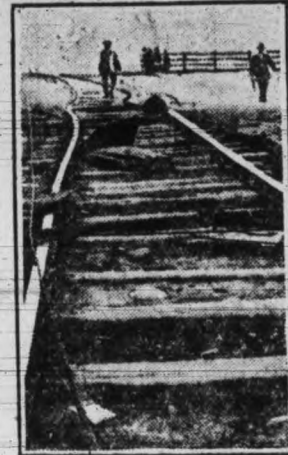

John B. Craig

John B. Territory In Near East Which Allies Propose To Give Turkey

The map shows the large area of Turkey, as far as the Marmara river and including Adrianople—which the Allies have now promised, in effect, to return to the Turks. By the treaty of Sevres the Turks were deprived of all territory in Europe except Constantinople, and the Greeks were to gain Eastern Thrace, which they now occupy. Land, within a day's journey of Constantinople, has been evacuated by the Komalists, according to cable advices. Mudania, where the allied-Nationalist conference is being held, is also shown.

Kolehmainen Sets Another Speed Record

HANNES KOLEHMAINEN
Hannes Kolehmainen, the Finnish runner, broke another record a few days ago, dispatches from Helsinki.

He ran 30 kilometers in 1:47:13.3. The previous record of 1:48:06.2 was set by Stenroos, another Finn, in 1915.

While generally referred to as a Finn, Kolehmainen, though born in Finland, is a naturalized citizen of the United States.

E. P. Weston Adds a Few Extra Miles

WESTON

Most men who'd just undertaken to walk from Buffalo to New York would consider the trip plenty long enough in itself without adding on a few extra miles for good measure. Not so, however, with Edward Payson Weston, famed for more than two generations as a mighty pedestrian, and now in his eighty-fourth year.

Four hundred and fifty miles was the journey Weston had mapped out for himself. He wanted it to be an even 500, so he added on the odd 50, partly as he went along, partly after his arrival within the limits of Greater New York.

Weston left Buffalo September 4 and allowed himself 30 days for the trip, without walking on Sundays. He finished two days ahead of his schedule.

The old man calculates that he's walked 85,000 miles. "I did it," he says, "for the sake of Young America—to spread the doctrine of keeping well by walking, instead of trusting to doctors."

HERE IS SOMETHING NEW.

We have just received the exclusive sale of one of the most charming and delightful homes in the vicinity of Victoria. This is absolutely the first time this property has been placed on the market, the owner having previously refused many attractive offers to sell.

SITUATION.

The situation is ideal, on high ground, about 2 1/2 miles from the centre of the city, on a main paved highway with excellent transportation facilities. The view obtained from the house is one that would be hard to beat, taking in a panorama of South Saanich, including the Observatory and other points of interest.

THE HOUSE.

An exceptionally well-built, 4-roomed, modern bungalow, we say well-built, because we know the history of the house and know that it was built about 7 years ago all by day labor and under the personal supervision of the present owner. The living room is a beautiful paneled and beamed with specially picked material and has been kept in a beautiful condition. Each room contains a large brick fireplace, a large bay window, a large place of ornamental construction from the outside of the house. This part of the house will appeal to the housewife who has a lot of her time in the kitchen. The balance of the house consists of a spacious hall, large, beautifully appointed bathroom and two particularly large bedrooms with huge closets—making up what we again contend is one of the most comfortable and compact little bungalows to be found in the country.

THE LAND.

There are 5 fine large lots all cleared, and containing an orchard of full bearing fruit trees which are the apple, plum, pear, peach, cherry, etc., as well as all kinds of berries—blackberries, raspberries, etc. There are also lawns, flower beds, hedges, ornamental trees, etc.

THE PRICE.

Full particulars as to price and terms will be given to anyone interested in a class of property upon application to

WINSTON & MURRAY, 610 Fort Street.

GOALS—How Scored.

Sec. 13. A goal shall be scored when the puck shall have passed between the goal posts, from the front and below an imaginary line across the top of posts, but not when kicked or thrown in.

A goal is placed in the middle of each goal line, composed of two upright posts supported by two upright posts, four feet in height, placed six feet apart and at least five feet from the end of the ice. The nets must be drawn over the top of the support bar and attached to a tight wire rope or rod attached to the top of the goal posts so as to prevent the puck from dropping into the goal from above. The goal posts shall be firmly fixed. In the event of a goal post being broken or displaced, the referee shall blow his whistle and the game shall not proceed until the post is replaced.

Goalkeeper.

Sec. 14. The goalkeeper may pass the puck to any player on his side up to the first blue line and same shall not be called offside; he may, during play, be knocked or hit upon the ice. He may pick up or catch the puck and hold same for not longer than three seconds. He may drop puck on the ice but he may not touch the puck with his hands or feet. If he picks up the puck he shall be out of play and the referee shall order a face

Official Scorer.

Sec. 20. The President of the League shall appoint an official scorer in each city whose duty it will be to keep a record of the list of players, officials, etc. for that match, as given him by the referee.

Rinks and Dressing Rooms.

Sec. 21. Each rink shall provide a separate dressing room for the exclusive use of the players and the goalkeeper. The timekeepers shall ring a gong at the expiration of each period and for the start of the second and third periods after ten minutes' interval has expired; this will be the signal for the players to resume play. After the signal has been given the referee shall skate on the ice and shall start play at the end of two minutes whether the teams are at full strength or not.

Anti-Defence Game Rule.

Sec. 22. It shall be illegal for any team to use more than a three (3) man defence, exclusive of the goalkeeper. When not checking back all other players must at all times be advancing towards their opponents' goal, etc. have the puck actually in play, and any standing shall be done by them between centre ice and their opponents' blue line. Any violation of this rule shall be subject to a penalty of two (2) minutes and the puck shall be faced off from centre ice.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that this rule shall not apply when the game is stopped.

Megaphone Coaching.

Sec. 23. No megaphone coaching shall be allowed.

Penalty Shot.

Sec. 24. Should a player deliberately trip or cross-check an opponent or throw a stick in order to prevent possible scoring of a goal, the referee may impose a penalty shot or a time penalty or both. Such shot shall take place from one of three circles, three (3) feet in diameter, marked on the ice at the end of three (3) radii, 36 feet in length to the centre, at an angle of 45 degrees left and right from the centre of each goal. The referee shall place the puck in the centre of the circle nearest the spot of the foul and the shot may be made by any player or spare on the fouled team, who may take a standing or running shot, provided that the puck must leave the referee's hands. The goalkeeper shall be the only player in the defending team who may defend this shot.

Goals scored from such shots shall count in the usual way. Should no goal be scored the referee shall face the puck fifteen (15) feet from the goal on the goal line.

Uniforms.

Sec. 25. Each team shall wear a distinctive uniform. In the event of uniforms of visiting teams in inter-league games clashing in the opinion of the referee, the uniforms of the home team then the visiting team shall put on numbered white slip-overs.

Delayed Penalties.

Sec. 26. When the teams are playing six men a side and a player receives a minor, or major penalty, there shall be no substitute allowed, but if a second player on the same side receives a minor penalty, a substitute may be put on for the first minute penalized. If the second player
